Michael Jarboe is a second-year Masters of Divinity student at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary and is a certified candidate for ministry in the elder track for the Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Michael moved from Louisiana, where he attended Centenary College, to Chicagoland the weekend of The Snowpocalypse of 2011 and has felt a part of the city since. A part-time barista to save money on the mass amounts of coffee consumed during study hours, Michael and his rock-star hairstylist wife, Lesley, enjoy cooking, running, and watching complete television series. Michael currently works as a seminary pastor at the Andersonville location of Urban Village Church, a four-site United Methodist Church located throughout Chicago's neighborhoods. He is passionate about church planting and creating communities of faith for those who have been burned by the Church in the past.
