SCRIPTURE READING FOR PENTECOST

Joel 2:28; Acts 2:1-4; Romans 8:14-18

I will pour out my Spirit on all kinds of people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old people will dream dreams, and your young people will see visions.

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.

Suddenly a noise like a strong, blowing wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.

They saw something like flames of fire that were separated and stood over each person there.

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak different languages by the power the Holy Spirit was giving them.

The true children of God are those who let God’s Spirit lead them.

The Spirit we received does not make us slaves again to fear; it makes us children of God.

With that Spirit we cry out, “Mother ... Father.”

And the Spirit joins with our spirits to say we are God’s children.

If we are God’s children, we will receive blessings from God together with Christ.

But we must suffer as Christ suffered so that we will have glory as Christ has glory.

ALL: The sufferings we have now are nothing compared to the great glory that will be shown to us.

Today we welcomed the following persons into our family of faith:

Chris & Emily Hart (children: Nathan 12 yrs; Andrew 9 yrs)

When you see them be sure to extend your hand of welcome and introduce yourself.
