INVOCATION

Dear Lord, we come this day to be reminded of what we too often forget, that you are doing new and wonderful things in our midst. But for some of us, the words of Jesus just rattle around in our minds and hearts like dry bones. Others of us are perplexed and skeptical; some of us are even angry with a Jesus who presumes to tell us how to live. We desire to hear the voice of God, but we are afraid of what we might have to give up. Attune our ears to Jesus' words today and let them give us the wisdom that helps us understand this mystery that we call life. Amen.

(David N. Mosser)
