OPENING PRAYER (adapted from Solomon’s prayer in 1 Kings 8:22-53)

O Lord, holy God, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and steadfast love for your servants who walk before you with all their hearts. O Lord God, hear the plea of your people when they pray in this house of prayer; O hear in heaven your dwelling place; heed and forgive. When a foreigner comes from a distant land because of your name and when a foreigner comes and prays toward this house, then hear in heaven your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you, so that all the people of the earth may know your name and fear you. If your people sin against you - for there is no one who does not sin - and if they repent with all their heart and soul and pray to you - in this house of prayer then hear in heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their plea, forgive your people who have sinned against you. Let your eyes be open to the plea of your servants listening to them whenever they call to you. Amen.
