What can the Really Really Free Market mean to someone who needs a hand up?

It can mean furniture for a fresh start, a baby crib, clothes for school, kitchen equipment to enable meal prep at home, or so much more.

On Saturday, August 5th from 8:30am until 3:00pm, the public will be invited to take what they need.

We need help with this huge community outreach effort:

Monday, July 31st through Friday, August 4th from 9:00am - 1:00pm

To help sort, organize, and set up

- AND -

Saturday, 8/5 to work the Market

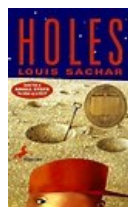

To volunteer, please contact:
Ellen Sterrett at 815-474-7733 or
Donna Morrow at 815-342-9414

Speaking of the Really Really Free Market, the church is accepting donations Monday through Friday from 9:00am to 1:00pm. So, now is the time to clean out those closets, cabinets, drawers and - for goodness sake - THE GARAGE and donate the items to the Really Really Free Market, for someone that can really use them!

Join the Traveling Team on Tuesday, August 1st, when Barb Flack will present on her travels to Normandy and Provence, France. Also up for discussion: travel as a tool for families & amateur genealogists. We will meet at 6:30pm in the Conference Room. All are welcome to join us!

The two Kid's Book Clubs will meet together for a "Book and a Movie" on August 10th @ 6:30pm in Room 101. If you haven't already read the book, it isn't too late. Pick up a copy of Louis Sachar's "Holes" and start reading now. Also mark your calendar and come on August 10th for a fun time of viewing, reviewing, and sharing snacks!

Today is our Fifth Sunday Appeal to help support United Voices for Children. Your donations will help support ChildServ, MYSI, and Rosecrance. Please find an envelope in the pew rack in front of you and make a donation to help children, youth and families in need.
