PRELUDE

*OPENING PRAYER (unison)

God of mystery and wonder, because we know the ending of the story, it's tempting for us to ignore the darkness of this day. It's tempting for us to go about our business as usual. It's tempting for us to move too quickly to the dawn of light on Easter morning.

But give us courage and strength on this night to live for a while in the darkness, to feel the darkness in which so many of your children dwell, the darkness into which your son, Jesus, entered.

As we reflect on the frailty of Christ, remind us of the frailty of all life. As we cringe at the suffering of Christ, make us mindful of suffering throughout the world. As we witness the death of Christ, bring us back full circle to the beginning of Lent, to the wisdom of Ash Wednesday: the awareness of our mortality and the mortality of those we love.

Merciful Savior, we are bold enough to ask, please stay with us as we remember your death. Guide our spirits through these dark hours. Humble us and help us always to remember the sacrifice you made for us. Amen.
