Romans 5:1-5, 18-21 Romans 5:1-5, 18-21 Romans 5:1-5, 18-21 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Not only so, but we also have access to His grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only so, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint, because we know that God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. These things also come from God's Spirit, who has made us righteous by His blood, through the law of faith. For when we were without ability, at the right time Christ died for us, who were still sinners, in order that we might be justified by His blood. For we are justified by His blood, not by our own righteousness, for we are without ability. For God's purpose was that through Christ Jesus we should receive the grace of God in which we stand, and that we should boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God, not that we boast in our own righteousness. For we are without ability, but we are justified by His blood, through the law of faith, in order that we might receive the grace of God in which we stand. Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

OPENING PRAYER (Bruce Prewer)

O majestic Lover of humanity, we come to you gratefully, for you have not left us alone in a cold universe but embraced us through Christ Jesus. You call us to be his sisters and brothers and joint-heirs in the kingdom of your love. You who have blessed us so remarkably, please bless us again as we bow before you. May our worship clear our smudged vision, liberate our stodgy spirits, and uplift our lives in joyful praise. Through Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.
